ASCENSION OF THE LORD

There is a delightful character in the original Dr. Dolittle Tales called the "Pushmi-Pullyu." It is a beast with two identical halves, with a head at each end. No matter which direction the beast walks, one end is the "push me" and the other is the "pull you." Today's feast is a bit like that in the life of the Church. In the book of the Acts of the Apostles, it is the ascension of Christ that calls for the Holy Spirit, which consequently sends or "pushes" the church out on its mission. This is the message that we hear from the angels today as they tell the friends of Jesus not to look up into the clouds, but to get busy. It is the message of Jesus himself in Matthew's Gospel, as he sends them out to baptize. He also tells them, "I am with you always, until the end of the age" (Matthew 28:20). And it is this message, confident in faith that Jesus has ascended to shouts of joy, that "pulls" us along to our final destiny. The life of the faithful disciple, sent into the world on mission, will one day know the same risen, ascended glory.

THE CHURCH OF SAINT ANSELM MISSION STATEMENT

We are a Roman Catholic family of believers committed to following Jesus by welcoming, celebrating, caring, evangelizing and growing in His image.

NOTES FROM FATHER TOM....

Lately there has been a lot of tragedy in our parish. Bernadette and Joe Katzenstein had their house burn down while they were on their way to see their dying daughter, Julie. Later in the week Julie did die. The Katzensteins are parishioners and Bernadette taught at Saint Anselm School. People have offered to help them and I have passed that information along. They need your prayers and support more than anything.

Chief Warrant Officer Christopher R. Thibodeau, 28, was killed while serving in Afghanistan. Although he and his family are not parishioners here, I did get to meet his wife and parents at the Memorial Day service at Chester Cemetery. I assured them that we, as a community, prayed for them at all of the Masses last weekend.

So whatever little problems I have, they are nothing compared to what some folks have had to go through. Please continue to pray for all who have experienced such heart aches in their lives.

On a more pleasant note, thanks to all who were involved in the festival. Thanks to Nick Gattozzi, who chaired the festival and to all who also worked so hard all weekend. I bet some of the people who worked in the kitchen all weekend slept real well when it was all over. Thanks to all who worked, all who came and all who bought tickets. Speaking of tickets, parishioners won both of the prizes on the cash raffle. (People like it when parishioners win even though they are glad non-parishioners buy tickets. Go figure.) As always, I had some tasty food over the weekend.

There is a concert in church this weekend.

MARRIED AND STILL ENGAGED WORKSHOP

Changes in our individual lives, as well as changes in our married and family life, provide wonderful opportunities to grow – both together and/or apart. This is an opportunity for you and your spouse to grow together. Join us on June 25th for our *Married and Still Engaged Program. Our day will be from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. in the Hospitality Room concluding with 4:30 p.m. Mass in the Church.

Prior to the workshop take the Gallup Strengths Finder (the code for an online survey is available in the book, Living Your Strengths available at the parish office) – and bring the print-out of your top five strengths to the workshop. Exploring your top 5 strengths and those of your spouse together will open doors of understanding regarding how you can better love and support each other. It is also serious fun! There will be opportunities to celebrate and affirm each other's strengths, to grow together in intimacy, and to become aware of the shadow sides of strengths and how they affect your relationship.

Cost: $40.00 per couple – lunch included. Register by June 6 by calling the parish office or downloading the registration form from the website.

Please join us for a day that will be more fun than you imagine.

THE CHURCH OF SAINT ANSELM CELEBRATES

50th ANNIVERSARY

Sunday, July 10, 2011

Bishop Richard Lennon will officiate at the 11:30 a.m. Mass to celebrate our 50th year as a parish in the Diocese of Cleveland.

Reception will follow.

All present and past parishioners, and friends are invited to attend this day of celebration.

ST. ANSELM UGANDA PROJECT

Saint Anselm Social Outreach Committee is pairing with the St. Kizito Foundation to promote the value of human life in Uganda. The St. Kizito Foundation (www.stkizitio.org) was founded by Fr. Don Dunson from the Diocese of Cleveland. The foundation provides the opportunities for former child soldiers and other children with difficult circumstances.

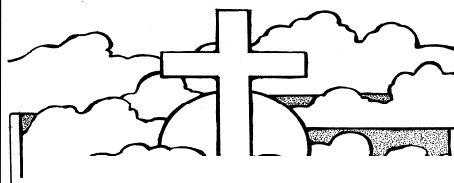

Learn more about the partnership of St. Anselm and the St. Kizito Foundation and how you can participate:

June 6, 2011 at 7:00 PM in the Hospitality Room.

NOTES FROM THE PRINCIPAL

A year of blessings is rolling to a close this week. Eighth graders will visit our State capitol on Monday, and our fourth graders will create their exploding volcanoes that afternoon. Tuesday is Field Day, Parent Club picnic for students, and Talent Show. Wednesday is Graduation Brunch, followed by their clap-out, and pizza for the rest of the students. That evening our eighth graders share their faith statements with their families as part of the Graduation Prayer Service. Thursday is our final day of school with Mass in the morning and Awards Assembly. We end the week with faculty meetings, and then the building will be quiet until it explodes with activity again with Vacation Bible School. Sister Ann and her crew do an amazing job with the energetic children in the program.

In between, don't forget to come out for the annual Golf Outing! This event takes place on Saturday, June 11th. Information has been posted on line, better hurry if you're interested.

June is a start-up time for the next school year, so we will be here, answering phones, preparing July Parent Packets, and closing up the old year while preparing for the new year.

And so we thank all of you for your tremendous support. Your prayers and good wishes have meant so much to all of us. Your donations to Support a Student make it possible for so many children to grow in their faith here. Father Sweany, Sister Ann, Jean Fitzgerald, the entire parish staff—the list goes on and on—go out of their way each and every day to assist us. David Fuller and the music ministry are ready to swoop in at a moment's notice and care for us. Mike Grubb, Jim Lees, David Schuth and Ed—and so many others—work every day to make this a safe and welcoming place.

From the hearts of the faculty and staff (and me!) thank you for another blessed year!

Miss Joan Agresta

TOURING CHOIR ON JUNE 5TH

Plan to come to the Summit Choral Youth Touring Choir Concert, this Sunday, June 5th at 3:00 p.m. at The Church of Saint Anselm. This concert is a wonderful opportunity to see and hear these amazing young singers.

Thanks to the generosity of a parish family, this concert is free and open to the public. For more information and directions, please visit St. Anselm's website at <http://www.stanselm.org>.

CALLING ALL COOKS!

Do you have a great recipe or two that you would like to share? We would love to include it in our upcoming cookbook!

The Messenger staff is coordinating the production of an Anniversary Issue Cookbook with a large professional cookbook publisher. We have extended the deadline and will be accepting your recipes through June 10, 2011 for inclusion in this special cookbook. Please do not submit copyrighted recipes.

You can download the special recipe form and instructions for entry from the parish website or pick up a form in the baptistry. Please complete the form as instructed on the sheet and return via the U.S. mail to the parish office or place in the recipe collection box in the baptistry of the church by June 10, 2011. You may also type and email recipes (but see recipe form for accepted abbreviations and other important information) to sacookbook@gmail.com by June 10, 2011.

MARRIAGE: LOVE AND LIFE IN THE DIVINE PLAN: CHILDREN

“Marriage is not merely a private institution. It is the foundation for the family, where children learn the values and virtues that will make good Christians as well as good citizens. The importance of marriage for children and for the upbringing of the next generation highlights the importance of marriage for all society.” To read the Bishops’ full document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.
